

SURREY News

DEVON • BROOMALL • HAVERTOWN • MEDIA

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Mojdeh Keykhah
Surrey Services for Seniors
484-843-2510
mkeykhah@surreyservices.org

THE MAIN LINE ANTIQUES SHOW COMBINES ART, JEWELRY, DESIGN AND ANTIQUES

Devon, PA – (August 15, 2017) The twelfth annual Main Line Antiques Show, the only antiques show held on Philadelphia's Main Line will be held on October 7 and 8 at Cabrini University in Radnor, PA. Folk art, exquisite prints, midcentury and antique furniture, decorative arts, ceramics, silver, paintings, Asian antiques, marine and equestrian antiques and more will be on offer. Claim a piece of history from the Show to make that special design element at your home or office a conversation piece.

Committee Chair Rick Davis, Honorary Chairs Anne Hamilton and Maureen Brennan-Miller, along with Show Manager Nick Vandekar are pleased to announce that over 24 exhibitors including longstanding Main Line Antiques Show dealers Lorraine Wambold Fine Estate Jewelry and The Ivory Tower will be in attendance. New to the Show this year is Valley Forge Flowers' The Cottage (French antiques). We welcome back Hollie Powers Holt Fine Art, Wesley T. Sessa Antiques, Van Tassel-Baumann American Antiques, James Kilvington, Stevens Antiques, Dixon-Hall Fine Art and Johanna Antiques. Exhibitors hail from the East Coast to the Midwest.

Opening Night Party

The ever popular Opening Night Party will be held Friday, October 6. Surrey and the Main Line Antiques Show share our gratitude to all of our sponsors including Presenting Sponsor West Laurel Hill and Opening Night Party Sponsor David J. Miller and Maureen Brennan-Miller.

Art Sleuth Seminar

Building momentum towards the Show will be an evening seminar held at Surrey in Devon on Thursday, September 28 from 6-9 pm, with celebrity antique art sleuth Robert Wittman, president of Robert Wittman Incorporated, the international art recovery, protection, and security firm. Robert is a 20 year veteran of the FBI's National Art Crime Team. In The Three F's of Art Crime: Frauds, Forgeries and Fakes true stories behind the headlines of the largest and most interesting frauds ever perpetrated in the art and collectible world will be presented. Tickets are $35.

Appraisal Event

The FREEMAN'S Appraisal Event will be held Friday October 20 from 3-6 pm. The fee is only $50 for two items for verbal valuation. Tickets for designated time intervals can be purchased by calling 484-843-2510.

The Main Line Antiques Show's beneficiary is Surrey Services for Seniors, a non-profit organization serving over 6,000 older adults and headquartered in Devon, with sites in Haverford, Broomall, and Media.

To learn more about The Main Line Antiques Show, request complimentary tickets for the Show weekend, purchase tickets for the seminar and opening party, and learn more about collecting via our blog posts please visit www.MainLineAntiquesShow.com.

About Surrey Services for Seniors

Surrey Services for Seniors' mission is to help older adults live with independence and dignity and to continue as active members of the community. Surrey is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization, providing a full spectrum of specialized services including: home care, transportation, center-based programs and activities, meal programs, lifelong learning opportunities, health and fitness activities, and opportunities to volunteer. What differentiates Surrey is our caring philosophy, holistic view and our family-centered approach to services for healthy aging. Learn more at www.SurreyServices.org or call 610-647-6404.